

Dispute Resolution Center OF THURSTON COUNTY

Applicants Sought for Board of Directors

Are you looking for an opportunity to make a real and lasting difference in your community?

You can play a key role in creating a more peaceful and civil community as a member of our Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Dispute Resolution Center of Thurston County (DRC) invites interested individuals to apply for open Board positions.

About the DRC:

The Dispute Resolution Center empowers people to resolve their disputes by providing direct conflict resolution services and training community members in those skills. We serve communities throughout Thurston and South Mason Counties. We envision a South Sound community that has and uses healthy and respectful conflict resolution skills. We value personal empowerment, integrity, respect, collaboration, civility, and trust.

Our story in Thurston County began in 1990 with the simple notion that residents can settle their own disputes and learn effective communications with the help of other residents who have learned practical, teachable and highly effective skills as neutral facilitators. The Dispute Resolution Center of Thurston County is one of 22 DRCs serving communities across Washington.

About the DRC Board:

The DRC Board of Directors is comprised of up to 15 community volunteers who are strong advocates for conflict resolution, civility, and promoting respect and peace in the communities the DRC serves. It is a working board that requires a strong leadership commitment by each member (see Board Member Commitment below).

As the governing body of the DRC - a 501(c)3 non-profit organization - the Board has fiscal and legal responsibility for the operations of the organization, and partners closely with the Executive Director and staff to plan and provide high quality services to the residents of Thurston and South Mason Counties. The Board meets monthly to conduct business. Board members contribute additional time to the organization as necessary.

The focus of the Board is to enhance and support the DRC's mission and key lines of service:

- Affordable Mediation Services to individuals, families, government agencies, businesses and organizations in our community so that they might peacefully attempt to resolve disputes;
- High-quality Training Resources in conflict resolution and communication skills, including certification programs for mediation, family mediation, and multi-party mediation, as well as restorative practices.
- Youth Empowerment Services (YES!), which provides K-12 schools and youth service agencies with resource to train and support young people in effective communication and conflict resolution skills.
